

LISTING OF FOREIGN GROUPS HOLDING AN INTERNATIONAL COOPERATIVE PROJECT ASSURANCE

The International Cooperative Project Assurance (ICPA) is a human subject protection assurance awarded by the Office for Protection from Research Risks that allows groups of foreign institutions to participate in NCI-sponsored clinical research. The ICPA can be cross-referenced to cover participation in multiple protocols. The ICPA represents a streamlined process for engaging foreign institutions in NCI-sponsored research and for the participation of Cooperative Groups in clinical research initiated by a foreign group.

Following is a list of each foreign group currently holding an ICPA and the contact person for each group.
